

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR CHALLENGING INFORMATION CONTAINED ON A CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD

You may challenge the completeness and accuracy of your criminal history record information by filling out the attached Application to Challenge Criminal History Records form provided by the State of Utah, Department of Public Safety, Bureau of Criminal Identification (BCI). Please complete all of the steps described below. Failure to properly complete one of the steps may cause a delay in processing your application.

1. Fill out the top portion of the application. List all of your previous names including married and maiden names. Be sure to read and sign the application.
2. Take the application to a law enforcement agency such as your city police department or county sheriff's office. Request that they print the four fingers of your right hand on the space provided. Make sure the law enforcement official that takes your fingerprints fills out the portion of the application labeled "OFFICIAL TAKING PRINTS." Government issued photo ID must be provided (for example, passport, state ID card, consulate ID card, and driver license.) Regular Drivers Licenses are accepted; however "Utah Driver Privilege Cards" WILL NOT be accepted by BCI as valid ID. Driving Privilege Cards state on them that they are not to be used as ID. NOTE: The fingerprints may be taken at our office, Bureau of Criminal Identification, 3888 West 5400 South, Taylorsville, Utah.
3. Attach a copy of your criminal history record and highlight the information you wish to challenge. You should also submit supporting documentation to show why you believe that the information contained on the criminal history record is incorrect. You must prove to the satisfaction of BCI that the criminal history record information is incomplete or inaccurate.
4. Once BCI receives your Application to Challenge Criminal History Records, it will be handled as an informal adjudicative proceeding in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 63G-4-203.
5. If BCI is satisfied that you have sufficiently documented that your criminal history record information is incomplete or inaccurate, BCI will amend the criminal history record accordingly.
6. If BCI denies the challenge, no further hearing, review, or reconsideration shall be granted. If you are dissatisfied with the decision made by BCI regarding the completeness or accuracy of the criminal history record information, you may appeal BCI's decision to district court in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 63G-4-402.
